Detail Introduction :

Wet Wipes Labels

We offer a range of Peel off label that combine reliable, long-term label adhesion and clean removability when required. These adhesive products are used in diverse manufacturing markets, ranging from automotive information or warning labels, point-of-sale labels, high temperature paint masking, manufacturing tracking identification and library book labels.

Our proprietary methods of combining adhesives and films ensure ultimate bond strength between face material and adhesive. This is key to ensuring the adhesive does not detach from the face film upon removal. A variety of adhesion levels are available to enable adhesion to and removal from a wide variety of surfaces, including low and high energy and curved surfaces.

The adhesives are suitable for use with many of our films and the adhesive's particular chemistry can be further modified to meet customers' performance requirements.
